All Cats Have Asperger Syndrome

Kathy Hoopmann

All Cats Have Asperger Syndrome takes a playful look at Asperger Syndrome (AS), drawing inspiration from the feline world in a way that will strike a chord with all those who are familiar with AS. Delightful colour photographs of cats bring to life familiar characteristics. Touching, humorous and insightful, this book evokes the difficulties and joys of raising a child who is different. This engaging book is an ideal, gentle introduction to the world of AS.

"I bought this book and gave it to my 12 year old son with Aspergers for Xmas. He loved it and so did all of my extended family. I would recommend it for anyone."

- Alison Davis. Mother. Port Macquarie NSW

Kathy Hoopmann is a primary school teacher and children's author who lives on a small property near Brisbane in Queensland, Australia. She enjoys camping, walking on the beach, and writing on the computer for hours on end. She is married with three children, two zebra finches, a cat and dozens of wild birds that feed on her back deck.

The Complete Guide to Asperger's Syndrome

Autism and Me (DVD and Booklet)

Rory Hoy

In easy, accessible terms, Rory explains what having autism means for everyday functioning: what it's like, for instance, not to have the natural inclination to respond to someone who calls you by your name; what it's like to take someone literally when actually they have used a figure of speech. He describes the confusion caused by high noise levels, crowded environments and even by his own emotions and physical sensations, as well as the security and comfort found in routines, forward planning and having thoughtful, calm and loving people around him.

Baj and the World Launcher: Space Age Asperger Adventures in Communication

Pamela Victor

Baj lives on the planet Aular and in many ways is like any other kid, but he has trouble keeping eye contact, waiting his turn in conversation and understanding instructions.

Will Baj ever get good at working out how other people feel and why? How can he control his "jumbly" words when he's upset or mad? When Baj is given a special present – a magical communication kit – he has the chance to discover the complex rules of social skills. This entertaining adventure story will capture children's imagination while exploring the complexities of the social world. Children can read about Baj's experiences independently or with a parent or helper, and the reader can learn about body language and the unspoken rules of communication.

How to Be Yourself in a World That's Different: An Asperger Syndrome Study Guide to Adolescents

Yuko Yoshida

How to Be Yourself in a World that's Different is an accessible guide to Asperger's syndrome (AS) written for young readers who have been diagnosed with AS and autism spectrum conditions. The book features a clear explanation of the triad of impairments – three sets of characteristics shared by everyone who has AS – and describes non-triad symptoms that are common to people on the autism spectrum, such as a hypersensitivity to touch and difficulties with balance and coordination. This informative and encouraging text highlights the positive aspects of autism spectrum conditions, such as diligence, fairness and a knack for unique ideas, but it also acknowledges the daily challenges faced by young people with AS and, crucially, offers strategies for dealing with these.

NEW TITLES

Advocacy in Action: The Fourth Book of Speaking Up

John Tufail and Kate Lyon

NZ Author

This fourth book in the series, looks at problems that can occur in an advocacy partnership, such as dependency on the advocate and conflict between partners. It also discusses advocacy and the law.

Pbk 72pp 9781843104780 $37.95 2007.02

Alone Together: Making an Asperger Marriage Work (Foreword by Tony Attwood)

Katrin Bentley

OZ Author

Communication is one of the biggest challenges faced by people with Asperger's Syndrome (AS), yet an Asperger marriage requires communication more than any other relationship. Thousands of people live in Asperger marriages without knowing the answers to important questions such as 'What behaviours indicate that my spouse has AS?'

Pbk 128pp 9781843105374 $36.95 2007.04

Blessing and a Curse: Autism and Me

Caiseal Mór

OZ Author

In this courageous and captivating autobiography, Mór describes his early ability to dissociate from his true existence – a common reaction by children suffering from repeated abuse – and the various personas he lived through in his teens and early adulthood – the Mahji, Charles P. Puddlejumper, Marco Polo and Chameleon Feeble.

Introduction Advocacy: The First Book of Speaking Up

John Tufail and Kate Lyon

NZ

This first book in the series, introduces the concept of Advocacy and explores appropriate advocacy models, for example peer group supportive models, and examines different forms of advocacy such as campaign advocacy, crisis or intervention advocacy, volunteer advocacy and health complaints advocacy.

Pbk 96pp 9781843104759 $38.95 2007.02

Miller Method: Developing the Capacities of Children on the Autism Spectrum

Arnold Miller, Eileen Eller-Miller with Kristina Dagmar

This informative and practical guide to the Miller Method® presents an entirely new perspective on advancing the social and communicative skills of children diagnosed with autism spectrum disorders. Taking a cognitive developmental approach that actively and dynamically engages children with objects and events, the authors argue that these children learn more effectively when their entire bodies are actively and repetitively involved in the process, as opposed to a more traditional approach which maintains children must learn to sit at a desk or table quietly before it is possible to teach them.

Listen Up! Speak Up! The Third Book of Speaking Up

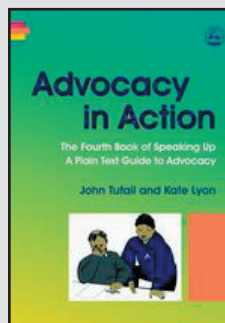

John Tufail and Kate Lyon

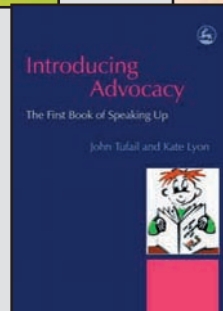

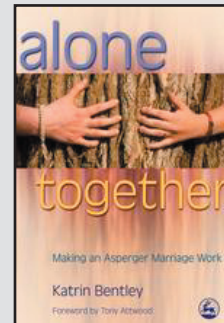

NZ Author

This third book in the series, uses examples of advocacy to explore how to be a good advocate, emphasising the importance of listening to and working with an advocacy partner and explaining how to prepare for and behave in meetings.

Tales from the Table: Lovaas Intervention with Children on the Autistic Spectrum

Margaret Anderson

Tales from the Table is a practitioner's account of the successes and limitations of using Lovaas home education with five young boys on the autistic spectrum. The abilities and skills of these 7-to-11-year-olds before, during and after intervention are documented with a focus on the realities of undertaking Lovaas home education: the impact of a 35-hour learning week on both child and parents, changing tutors and issues of commitment to the approach.
